

Terms of service

By submitting a vehicle estimate request to VDA Group LTD, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Data Processing for Estimation:

- You acknowledge and agree that by submitting an estimate request, VDA Group LTD may process the data provided, including vehicle details and client information, for the sole purpose of generating accurate and customized vehicle estimates.

2. Non-Disclosure of Third-Party Data:

- VDA Group LTD assures that the data submitted for estimation purposes will not be shared, sold, or used for any purposes other than the generation of the requested estimate. We uphold strict confidentiality standards.

3. Data Usage on Customer's Behalf:

- The information provided will be used exclusively on your behalf to facilitate the estimation process. We do not utilize customer data for any purposes other than those directly related to the requested vehicle estimate.

4. Payment Agreement:

- By submitting an estimate request, you agree to pay the fee displayed for the estimation service provided by VDA Group LTD. The fee and payment terms are clearly communicated during the estimation request process.

5. Data Retention:

- VDA Group LTD will retain your personal and vehicle information for a duration necessary to fulfill the estimation request. Our data retention practices comply with relevant regulations.

6. Consent:

- Your submission of a vehicle estimate request constitutes your explicit consent to the terms outlined in this disclaimer, including the processing of data for estimation purposes, the non-disclosure of third-party data, and the agreed-upon payment.

Please note that failure to agree to these terms may impact our ability to provide you with the requested estimation service.
